1 GENERAL

(1) ROLE

The Attorney General's Office continues to be under the direction of the Hon. Acting Attorney General Mr. 'Asipeli 'Aminiasi Kefu during the year.

The Attorney General is the Crown's First Law Officer. The Attorney General is vested with wide common law powers that include: filing of ex efficio information, entering of a nolle prosequi in certain criminal prosecutions, and maintaining relator actions in matters affecting the general public. These powers are exercised by the granting of the Attorney General's fiat. As such, he decides whether or not and in what precise circumstances, he will issue his certificate.

In conjunction with these common law powers, the Attorney General has certain statutory responsibilities. The instigation of criminal proceedings in an increasing number of offences is now contingent upon the Attorney General's consent being first obtained. The Attorney General's has statutory duties and powers under the following legislation:

- Anti Corruption Act;
- Consumer Protection Act;
- Charitable Trusts Act;
- Court of Appeal Act;
- Copra Act;
- Crown Proceedings Act;
- Commissioner for Public Relations Act;
- Defamation Act;
- Divorce Act;
- Electoral Act;
- Extradition Act;
- Fisheries Management Act;
- Foreign Evidence Act;
- Guardianship Act;
- Intoxicating Liquor Act;
- Immigration Act;
- Legitimacy Act;
- Law Practitioners Act;
- Public Finance Management Act;
- Public Enterprises Act;
- Pharmacy Act;
- Supreme Court Act;
- Tobacco Control Act;
- Money Laundering and Proceeds of Crime Act;
- Medical and Dental Practice Act;
- Maintenance of Illegitimate Children Act;

- Magistrate's Court Act;
- Mental Health Act;
- Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act;
- Nurses Act;
- Retirement Fund Board Act;
- Stamp Act
- Tonga Law Commission Act;
- Transnational Crimes Act; and
- Wharves Act.

The Director of Public Prosecutions ('DPP') continues to be responsible for criminal prosecutions under a delegation of the Attorney General. Since the DPP is also the Acting Attorney General, and due to the workload and experience within the office, the DPP also provides direction for civil and land cases involving the Crown.

The Solicitor General is in turn the Crown's Second Law Officer, and is in charge of the daily administration of the Department. The Department's role is based upon the accepted traditional functions of Government Law Officers. Generally, these functions revolve around the following categories:

- Providing legal advice to Government;
- Representing the Crown in civil litigation;
- Criminal Prosecutions;
- Legislative Drafting;
- Law Officer functions;
- Implement Government's Community Law Initiatives.

(2) OFFICE

The Attorney General's Office is located on the first floor of the Taumoepeau Building, corner of Fatafehi and Salote Roads in central Nuku'alofa. The Office is still contemplating hiring further office space above its current office premises in the Taumoepeau Building, for a proper law library and more offices for its Crown counsel.

(3) DEPARTMENT BUDGET

The budget expenditure of the Office for the 2015/2016 financial year was $2103,700.00. For the 2016/2017 was allocated $2,800,00.00.

(4) ORGANIZATIONAL CHAR

2 STAFF

(1) STAFF DURING 2015

In January 2015 the Office had a total of 23 established staff. The Office had 13 legal staff including the Acting Attorney General and Solicitor General and 10 administrative support staff.

The legal officers employed in the Office hold law degrees from various universities in Australia, New Zealand and the University of the South Pacific. They each have been admitted to practice law in the jurisdictions where they studied and also here in Tonga.

The Office continues to be challenged with the lack of experience of its young staff, however close supervision and mentoring has allowed the Crown counsels to gain experience quickly.

The Acting Attorney General and the Solicitor General conducted monthly meetings with all staff for administrative matters. The Director of Public Prosecutions and Solicitor General conducted weekly meetings with legal staff in order to coordinate the Office's legal work.

Both the legal and administrative support staff contributed well to the efficient operation of the Office during 2015.

(2) STAFF MATTERS

LEGAL STAFF

The Office of Attorney General remains vacant. Amendments to the Constitution and subsequent amendments to reflect the transfer of criminal prosecutions from the Attorney General to the Director of Public Prosecutions was refused Royal Assent on the legally dubious rationale that a different Legislative Assembly and Cabinet had processed and approved these amendments. The result is that the legislation will be re-processed for approval by the new Legislative Assembly and Cabinet, which were appointed after the national elections in November 2014.

Due to the limited number of Crown counsels, the Director of Public Prosecutions is currently housed in the Attorney General's Office, and so Crown counsels also perform the role of Crown prosecutors.

On 5 January 2015 Ms. 'Elisiva 'Akauola, returning scholar and Ms. Lute Fakatou Aonima, returning scholar were recruited as daily paid legal researchers and translators.

On 9 April 2015, Ms. Mafi Tu'inukuafe, Executive Legal Assistant was promoted to the post Assistant Crown Counsel after completing her Professional Legal Studies course with the Institute of Professional Legal Studies in New Zealand.

On 23 June 2015, Mr. 'Inoke Finau, returning scholar was appointed by His Majesty's Cabinet to the post Assistant Crown Counsel.

On 29 June 2015, Ms. 'Elisapeti Lavakei'aho Langi, Crown Counsel was promoted to the post Assistant Senior Crown Counsel.

On 8 October 2015, Ms. 'Elisiva 'Akauola, daily paid legal researcher and translator was appointed by His Majesty's Cabinet to the post Assistant Crown Counsel.

On 2 October 2015, Mr. James Bruce Lutui, Crown Counsel was promoted to the post Senior Crown Counsel.

On 14 October 2015, Ms. Lute Fakatou Aonima, daily paid legal researcher and translator was appointed by His Majesty's Cabinet to the post Assistant Crown Counsel.

On 13 November 2015, Ms. Julianna Lafaialii- Lutui, Assistant Crown Counsel and Ms. Leotrina Macomber, Assistant Crown Counsel were promoted to the post Crown Counsel.

Three returning scholars joined the Office as new Crown counsel at the Assistant Crown Counsel level, taking the legal staff to 16, which is the highest number of Crown counsels ever. The Office still requires more staff to perform its duties and functions.

SUPPORT STAFF

On 19 March 2015, Mr. Samuela Toli, Driver and Mr. Siosaia Fifita, Driver were promoted by the Public Service Commission to the post VIP Driver.

On 13 April 2015, Ms. Ma'ata Toe'api was appointed by the Public Service Commission to the post of Interpreter.

On 22 June 2015, Ms. Lupeolo Tupou, Revenue Officer Grade II was transferred on a promotion from the Ministry of Revenue and Customs to the Attorney General's Office to the post Interpreter.

On 22 June 2015, Ms. Grace Motu'apuaka joined the Attorney General's Office as a daily paid, office clerk.

On 2 July 2015, Ms. Siosi'ana Latu Kalapa, daily paid office clerk was appointed by the Public Service Commission to the post Assistant Filing Registrar.

On 2 July 2015, Mr. Makisi Paea, daily paid driver for the Ministry of Justice was appointed by the Public Service Commission to the post Driver.

On 3 July 2015, Mr. 'Okona 'One'one, daily paid driver for the Ministry of Commerce, Tourism and Labour was appointed by the Public Service Commission to the post Driver.

On 6 August 2015, Mr. Metuisela Vainikolo was appointed by the Public Service Commission to the post System Administrator.

STAFF RETIREMENTS

On 10 August 2015, Mr. Siosaia Fifita, VIP driver retired from the Public Service.

Schedule I sets out the staff details.

(3) OVERSEAS MEETINGS AND WORKSHOPS

In 2015, members of the legal staff attended various regional and international meetings and workshops representing the Tongan Government on legal matters.

Schedule II sets out in detail the regional and international meetings and workshops attended by the Office's legal staff.

(4) CONTINUED LEGAL EDUCATION

In January 2015, Ms. Mafi Tu'inukuafe, Executive Legal Assistant, left the Office to read for a Professional Legal Studies Course with the Institute of Professional Legal Studies in Auckland, New Zealand. Ms. Tu'inukuafe was awarded a New Zealand Short Term Training Awards 2014/15 to complete this programme.

Ms. Sela Halaevalu Aleamotu'a, Assistant Crown Counsel and Ms. Susana Fineanganofo Kausea, Assistant Crown Counsel were awarded a Commonwealth Scholarship to complete the Professional Diploma in Legislative Drafting Programme through distant flexible learning (DFL) with the University of the South Pacific.

Ms. Marina Moa, Assistant Crown Counsel successfully completed the Professional Diploma in Legislative Drafting Programme on 27 March 2015.

Ms. 'Elisapeti Lavakei'aho Langi, Crown Counsel successfully completed her Masters in Criminology Law from the University of Sydney on 3 May 2015.

Ms. Mafi Tu'inukuafe, Ms. Lute Fakatou Aonima and Ms. 'Elisiva 'Akau'ola, returning scholars were successfully admitted to the Tongan Bar on 30 May 2015.

Mr. 'Inoke Finau, returning scholar was successfully admitted to the Tongan Bar on 25 September 2015.

Ms 'Akanesi Katoa, Assistant Crown Counsel, was attached to the Australian Attorney General's Department for 2 months (October to December 2015) as part of the 2015 Pacific Legal Policy Twinning Program.

Ms. Sela Halaevalu Aleamotu'a, Assistant Crown Counsel and Ms. Susana Fineanganofo Kausea successfully completed the Professional Diploma in Legislative Drafting Programme on 11 December 2015.

The Attorney General's Office continues to face the same challenges of training its young and inexperienced Crown counsel.

The Office continues its programme on expediting experience for its Crown counsel through internal law presentations, assigning two person prosecution teams to criminal trials, on-the-job training, especially regarding drafting legal documents and thinking strategically. Crown counsel are also benefitting when allocated to represent the Office and Government in national, regional and international trainings, and also official meetings.

(5) MEETINGS AND WORKSHOPS HOSTED BY THE OFFICE

(a) Training for Judiciary and Prosecutors on Cybercrime

The Attorney General's Office co-facilitated with the Council of Europe (GLACY Project) a Training for Judiciary and Prosecutors on Cybercrime at the Attorney General's Office Conference Room on 24 April 2015. This training focused on training members of the judiciary on cybercrime issues.

(h) Tonga Law Practitioners' Conference

The Office hosted the first Tonga Law Practitioners' Conference at Fa'onelua Convention Centre on 10-11 December 2015. The theme of the Conference focused on "Contemporary Legal Issues". Acting Attorney General and Director of Public Prosecutions facilitated sessions on prosecution and evidentiary issues and Ms. 'Akanesi Katoa, Assistant Crown Counsel facilitated sessions on how to conduct legal research.

(6) INTERNATIONAL LAW MATTERS

The Attorney General's Office has been heavily involved in international law matters for Government. The following are the pertinent international law matters:

(a) Asia Pacific Group on Money Laundering

The Office represented the Kingdom in the Annual General Meeting that was held in Macao China. Tonga is co-leading two typologies projects on transhipment of illicit drugs through the Pacific with Vanuatu and the recovery of proceeds of crimes from corruption with Papua New Guinea. The Acting Attorney General and Director of Public Prosecutions continues to be the chairman of the Cabinet Committee on Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Activities

(b) International Seabed Authority

The Office has for the first time attended the meeting of state parties to the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea and also the annual meeting of the International Seabed Authority in Kingston, Jamaica.

(c) Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf

The Office provided legal support to the Government delegation that submitted Tonga's second claim to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf.

(7) STAFF HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS

AGO continued to work closely with the Public Service Commission in various human resource related programs, especially working towards reviewing relevant Job Descriptions for the implementation of the first phase of the Performance Management System.

5 LEGAL ADVICE

The Office continued to provide legal advice to Government Ministries, Departments and Agencies. This was provided in written form in a timely manner and where necessary, legal advice was provided orally or through email.

The Solicitor General issues most of the legal advice, with the Attorney General being referred legal advice matters when necessary. All the Crown counsels are called upon when necessary to conduct research and provide legal advice when required.

The Office was very fortunate to receive a free one year subscription to LexisNexis for all it's legal staff as part of the Pacific Rule of Law Project. This subscription proved to be very resourceful for the legal staff.

With regards to law reporting, the Office is working on updating the availability of the Tonga Law Reports. The Office has recently produced the 2012 Tonga Law Reports, and hope to print the 2013 Tonga Law Reports early in 2015, and the 2014 Tonga Law Reports in mid-2015.

There remains a challenge of access to electronic legal databases due to costs, and also office space for the law library. Furthermore, the Office is considering technical assistance to establish an electronic case management system.

The Department issued 259 written legal during 2015. Schedule III sets out the number of advices issued to Ministries, Departments and Agencies.

4 LEGISLATION

(1) THE LAW COMMITTEE

The year 2015 was not a very busy legislative year mainly because of the new Cabinet.

The legislation enacted in 2015 are summarised as follows:

- the Legislative Assembly passed 16 Acts;
- 12 Acts have been granted Royal Assent, and have been promulgated to come into force;
- 3 Acts are awaiting processing to His Majesty for Royal Assent;
- Certain executive authorities made 8 subsidiary legislation.

The significant legislation passed was the new Statistics Act to support the Statistics Department, and also a new Receivership Act which will regulate receivership actions.

Certain factions of the community are utilising their rights under clause 8 of the Constitution to petition His Majesty the King in relation to new laws that are enacted by the Legislative Assembly and before receiving Royal Assent. Legislation subject to petition are therefore deferred from the King for further consultation to ensure consensus and understanding, before they are re-submitted for Royal Assent. The Office is working to have a closer consultation relationship with His Majesty's personal legal advisors, the Law Lords, in order to avoid any frustration of Government's efforts to enact laws.

The Office's legislative drafting team was led by the Acting Attorney General and supported by the Solicitor General, one Senior Crown Counsel, one Assistant Crown Counsel and two translators.

Two Crown counsels completed the legislative drafting training for the Post-Graduate Diploma in Legislative Drafting, offered by the University of the South Pacific, making it 11 Crown counsel now who hold a Post Graduate Diploma in Legislative Drafting.

The Office continues to benefit from the efficiency and effectiveness of its electronic legislative template developed for drafting Tongan laws. All the laws are published in the website www.crownlaw.gov.to/cms, in both final and draft form. The public and relevant stakeholders are notified of new laws through the relevant Ministry and through email notifications from the Office. Where necessary, the Office has published in the local newspapers the new laws that are being processed or have been enacted for public submissions or dissemination. The Office has also started to upload Court of Appeal, Supreme Court and Magistrates Court judgements on it's website.

The Office has also utilised social media through a Facebook page and a twitter account to provide updates on new laws, and other activities of the Office.

However, the main challenges in the Office's legislative drafting programme continue to be the time required to translate laws into Tongan, and also meeting Government's changing legislative priorities.

Work continues on the finalisation of the consolidation of the laws of Tonga up to 2015. Since the resignation of the Attorney General, he has agreed to continue to drive the consolidation process. We are now hoping that the consolidation would be completed by end of 2016.

The Attorney General's Office continued to provide the Secretariat duties to the Law Committee during the year. The Committee continued to meet during the year to consider amendments to existing laws and to vet new Bills to be approved by His Majesty's Cabinet and Privy Council for tabling before the Legislative Assembly, and also new draft regulations to be made by the relevant authorities.

The members of the Government Law Committee are as follows:

1) Minister for Justice (Chairman);
2) Deputy Prime Minister (Deputy Chairman);
3) Attorney General;
4) Minister of Police, Prisons and Fire Services;
5) Minister for Finance and National Planning;
6) Chief Secretary and Secretary to Cabinet;
7) Solicitor General; and
8) Attorney General's Office, as Secretariat.

Depending on the issues discussed, the Law Committee co-opted persons from the relevant Government Ministries, Departments and Agencies to assist with the Law Committee's deliberations.

Schedule IV sets out the Bills and Schedule V sets out the Regulations, considered by the Law Committee, and subsequently enacted.

5 LITIGATION

(1) COURT OF APPEAL

In October 2014, His Majesty in Privy Council, after receiving advice from the Judicial Appointments and Discipline Panel, appointed Lord Tupou, a former Attorney General and Minister for Justice, and a former Crown Solicitor, as the first Tongan to be appointed to the Court of Appeal of Tonga. Lord Tupou first sat on the Court of Appeal during its Second Session from 20 to 31 October 2014. In 2015 the Crown was involved in 20 matters.

(2) SUPREME COURT

In February 2015, the new Lord Chief Justice took office. He is Mr. Owen Paulsen, formerly a partner and head of litigation of the Christchurch commercial law firm Cavell Leith Law. He holds a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Auckland and a Masters of Law degree with First Class of Honours from the University of Auckland.

(A) CRIMINAL CASES

Criminal cases continued to take up most of the litigation work of the legal staff.

The Office continues to enjoy a high conviction rate of around 80%. The number of cases being dealt with will now be heard in the Magistrate's Court, and so Crown prosecutors will now be prosecuting more in the Magistrate's Court. The prosecutions in the Supreme Court will be serious cases of violence, sexual offending and illicit drugs. The Director of Public Prosecutions and the Solicitor General were responsible for and led the prosecutions.

The Director of Public Prosecutions also issued 3 General Instructions on 5 October 2015 to assist with criminal prosecution procedures. The instructions were based on the following:

(1) DPP General Instructions 1 - Charging Serious and Simple Offences Under the Criminal Offences Act.

(2) DPP General Instructions 2 – Committal of Indictable Offences in the Magistrate's Court

(3) DPP General Instructions 3 – Criminal Prosecution Procedures

The following are the figures for criminal cases, in the Supreme Court at the end of 2015:

Pending Criminal Cases from Previous Years	184
New Cases during 2015	152
Total Criminal Cases for 2015	336
Total Criminal Cases Closed in 2015	202
Pending Cases	134

(B) CIVIL CASES

In the area of civil litigation, the Acting Attorney General and Director of Public Prosecutions has handled all the civil litigation.

Civil cases involving the Crown were also significant.

Pending Civil Cases from Previous Years	22
New Civil Cases for 2015	9
Total Civil Cases for 2015	31
Total Civil Cases Closed in 2015	7
Pending Civil Cases	24

(C) FAMILY MATTERS

The Supreme Court continued to refer family applications under its Family Jurisdiction to the legal staff to provide confidential Guardian Ad Litem reports in the best interests of the children. This work continues to be a significant part of the work of the legal staff. These are mainly applications for adoption of illegitimate children under the Maintenance of Illegitimate Children Act [Cap 30], and applications for guardianship of legitimate children under the Guardianship Act 2004.

During 2015 a total of 131 guardian ad litem reports were provided by legal staff to the Courts.

(3) LAND COURT

In the area of land litigation, the Acting Attorney General and Director of Public Prosecutions has handled all the land litigation.

The Land Court continued to have cases involving the Crown. The figures are as follows:

Pending Land Cases from Previous Years	43
New Land Cases during 2015	16
Total Land Cases for 2015	59
Total Land Cases Closed for 2015	17
Pending Land Cases	42

(4) MAGISTRATES COURT

In January 2015, two new Magistrates were appointed to the Magistrates Court. Magistrate Lataimanamo'ui Kaufusi is a former public servant and locally qualified law practitioner of more than 20 years. Magistrate Peni Ma'u is a former military officer and public servant of more than 20 years.

With amendments made in 2012, most of the criminal workload is now handled by the enhanced jurisdiction of the Principal Magistrate, who is the only legally qualified Magistrate. The jurisdiction of the Magistrate's Court is to deal with criminal cases with a maximum sentence of not more than 3 years imprisonment or a fine of not more than $10,000.00. The Magistrate's Court (Amendment) Act 2012 created an enhanced jurisdiction where a magistrate can deal with offences beyond its jurisdiction but not impose sentences beyond 7 years imprisonment or a fine of more than $50,000.

Due to the shift of the criminal workload to the Magistrate's Court, the Director of Public Prosecutions and the Police Commissioner are now considering housing all criminal prosecutions in the Magistrate's Court and Supreme Court under the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

The main challenge is for the enhanced jurisdiction being used for dealing with the workload of criminal cases.

The Supreme Court, Land Court and Magistrate's Court continue to serve the whole of the Kingdom by circuit, but this depends on there being cases to be dealt in the remote island groups of the Niuas, 'Eua and the Ha'apai Islands.

(5) SIGNIFICANT CASES

The following are some of the significant Court decisions in 2015:

(a) Cauchi v Judicial Appointments and Discipline Panel, AC 33/14

This was an appeal to the Court of Appeal by the former Attorney General, Mr John Cauchi, against a ruling by the Supreme Court dismissing his application for judicial review. The Appellant had filed a civil action against the Crown for constructive dismissal before the former Lord Chief Justice. The former Lord Chief Justice rules that a jury would determine questions of facts, and that he would determine liability. The Appellant did not agree with this and lodged a disciplinary complaint against the Lord Chief Justice with the Judicial Appointments and Discipline Panel. The Panel dismissed the appeal because the civil claim was still at foot. The Appellant then lodged a judicial review application which was refused by another Supreme Court judge. The Appellant then successfully appealed to the Court of Appeal, and the Appellant's complaint was ordered to be re-instated before the Panel to fully consider. The Panel has considered the complaint and its decision is reserved. Meanwhile, the substantive legal action against the Crown will be re-commenced in the Supreme Court under the new Lord Chief Justice.

(b) Taufa v (1) Tahaafe, (2) Minister of Lands*, AC 30/14

This was an appeal to the Court of Appeal from a decision of the Land Court not to allow a claim by an elder brother to land because the elder brother had lost his Tongan nationality before the National Act was amended in 2007 to allow for dual citizenship. The Court of Appeal ruled that only Tongans can hold land, and that the elder brother had lost his right to hold land in Tonga when he naturalised as a United States citizen before 2007.

(c) Lavulavu v Latu and anor*, AC 11/15

This was an appeal to the Court of Appeal from a decision of the Supreme Court disallowing the Appellant from electing for a trial jury in an election petition case. The Court of Appeal agreed with the Lord Chief Justice that there is no right to a jury trial in an election petition cases made under the Electoral Act.

(d) Public Service Association Incorporated and anor v Lord Tu'ivakano and anor*, AC 5/15

This was an appeal to the Court of Appeal from a decision of the Supreme Court dismissing an application by the Appellants to remove to the Supreme Court a complex defamation case that was on foot at the Magistrate's Court. The Court of Appeal ruled that the Supreme Court had a power to remove a case from the Magistrate's Court to the Supreme Court, and the defamation case was accordingly removed.

(e) Public Service Association Incorporated and anor v Kingdom of Tonga and anor*, AC 9/15

This was an appeal to the Court of Appeal against a decision of the Supreme Court ordering the Appellants to each pay $20,000.00 as security for costs. The Court of Appeal allowed the appeal, and the security costs order was set aside.

(f) Friendly Islands Satellite Communications Limited v Pohiva and ors*, AC 14/15

This was an appeal to the Court of Appeal from a decision of the Supreme Court to lift a restraining order issued against the Respondents regarding the publication of tax information regarding the Appellant. The Court of Appeal dismissed the appeal and held that the Supreme Court had exercised its discretion properly.

6 LEGAL SECTOR INITIATIVE / PROJECTS

The following were the legal sector initiatives for 2015:

(1) TONGA LAW REPORTS

The Office has updated the Tonga Law Reports to 2014, and is being processed for legislation. Thereafter, the Tonga Law Reports will be printed annually in the second quarter of every year.

(2) 8TH ANNUAL LAW WEEK, 2015

In the first week of November 2015, the Office conducted the 8th Annual Law Week, with a theme of "Law and Rights of Parties in Courts". The focus was on educating and reminding the public of their rights in Court when they appear as a party in criminal, civil, land and family matters. The Office published in the main newspapers a list of the Court rights, and also conducted five day radio talkback during the week which proved very popular with national and international listeners, although most of the questions sought clarification on titles to land and succession, and also adoptions and guardianships.
