- (1) The master of an aircraft or ship arriving into the Kingdom shall provide Customs with a passenger manifest at least one hour prior to the arrival of the aircraft or four hours prior to the arrival of the ship.
- (2) The master of an aircraft or ship departing from the Kingdom shall provide Customs with a passenger manifest at least one hour prior to the departure of the aircraft or four hours prior to the departure of the ship.

14 Embarkation and disembarkation¹²

- (1) No person shall disembark from or embark onto an aircraft or ship arriving or departing on an international voyage into or from the Kingdom at any place other than a place appointed under section 124(1)(a).
- (2) Any person disembarking from or embarking onto an aircraft or ship arriving in or departing on an international voyage into or from the Kingdom at any place other than a place appointed under section 124(1)(a), commits an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 10 years, or both.

15 Loading and unloading cargo¹³

- (1) The master shall load an aircraft or ship —
 - (a) at ports, airports, wharves or sufferance wharves appointed or approved under section 124; and
 - (b) during normal Customs working hours,unless the permission of a Customs officer is obtained as prescribed to load or unload at a place other than the prescribed place or at a time outside normal Customs working hours.
- (2) A master shall unload an aircraft or ship —
 - (a) directly after the arrival of that aircraft or ship;
 - (b) at ports, airports, wharves or sufferance wharves appointed or approved under section 124; and
 - (c) during normal Customs working hours,unless the permission of a Customs officer is obtained as prescribed to load or unload at a place other than the prescribed place or at a time outside of normal Customs working hours.

16 Discrepancies

The master of an aircraft or ship shall immediately inform a Customs officer in the prescribed form of any discrepancy between the cargo manifest or loading list and the actual goods landed.

17 Unloaded cargo

- (1) Cargo unloaded from an aircraft or ship shall be placed in a Customs area and shall be under Customs control.
- (2) Access to cargo under Customs control shall be as authorised by a Customs officer.

- (3) Goods under Customs control shall only be removed upon the acceptance by Customs of a prescribed Customs entry.
- (4) Imported goods unloaded from any aircraft or ship which had not been cleared to the owner from a Customs area four days from the completion of unloading may be deposited by a Customs officer in a Crown's warehouse or approved place.¹⁴
- (5) The owner shall be liable for all costs, charges, and expenses involved in moving imported goods from the place of unloading to the Crown's warehouse or Customs area including the rent and other charges in connection with the storage of those goods.

18 Sufferance wharf

Goods under Customs control shall not be unloaded from or loaded onto an aircraft or ship at a sufferance wharf unless in accordance with the conditions under section 124.

19 Breaking of bulk

The master of a ship or aircraft shall not break bulk unless a cargo manifest has been provided in accordance with this Part or the written permission of the Minister is first obtained.

20 Master to provide information

- (1) The master of an aircraft or ship or his authorised agent shall as required by a Customs officer —
 - (a) provide all such information relating to the aircraft or ship, its cargo, baggage, crew, passengers and flight or voyage;
 - (b) produce all books and documents in his custody or control relating to the aircraft or ship, its cargo, stores, baggage, crew, passengers and flight or voyage; and
 - (c) before any person disembarks, deliver to the boarding Customs officer, a passenger list, and the name of the master, officers and crew.
- (2) A master of an aircraft or ship or his authorised agent, who without reasonable explanation fails to comply with sub-section (1), commits an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 10 years or both.

21 Passenger's arrival declaration

- (1) A master of an aircraft or ship arriving in the Kingdom shall provide to passengers a prescribed passenger's declaration form for completion prior to arrival in the Kingdom.
- (2) A passenger shall give a completed prescribed passenger's declaration to a Customs officer or if there is no Customs officer on duty, to the nearest police station on arrival.
- (3) A passenger arriving in the Kingdom shall be deemed not to have legally entered until Customs clearance is obtained.

22 Passenger's departure declaration¹⁵

- (1) Passengers of an aircraft or ship departing from the Kingdom shall As required complete a prescribed declaration form prior to departure.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), a passenger shall give a completed prescribed declaration to a Customs officer on departure.

23 Customs clearance¹⁶

- (1) A Customs officer may grant Customs clearance when —
 - (a) not less than 24 hours have elapsed after an application for the clearance has been made to a Customs officer; and
 - (b) all inward cargo and stores of the ship or aircraft have been duly accounted for and all other requirements of the law in regard to the ship or aircraft and her inward and outward cargo in stores have been duly complied with.
- (2) A Customs officer may refuse Customs clearance when —
 - (a) application is not lodged in the prescribed form;
 - (b) any document required by the Customs officer is not produced;
