“Chief Executive Officer” means the Chief Executive Officer of the Ministry responsible for disaster risk management;

“cluster” for the purposes of this Act means an entity established under section 43;

“cluster workplan” means an annual workplan prepared by a cluster, outlining activities of the cluster for disaster preparedness, response and recovery;

“cost of operations” means the cost of all activities related to a specific emergency and organised for disaster preparedness, response and recovery;

“critical services” for the purposes of this Act means services that are critical during an emergency, including the provision of water, electricity, telecommunications, transportation and fuel supply;

“Director” for the purposes of this Act means the person appointed as the Director of the National Disaster Risk Management Office;

“disaster” means a serious disruption within a particular area or generally within the Kingdom caused by an event, resulting in widespread human, economic or environmental loss or impact, and exceeds the ability of the affected community or the country to respond using its own resources;

“disaster displacement” means a situation where a person is forced to leave his home or place of habitual residence, due to or as a result of an immediate or foreseeable event;

“disaster management” means arrangements for managing potential adverse effects of a disaster;

“disaster preparedness” means knowledge and capacities developed by the Government, non-government organisations, communities and individuals to effectively anticipate, respond to and recover from the impacts of likely, imminent or current disasters;

“disaster risk” means potential disaster loss including loss of life, health, property, livelihood, or services, which could occur in the Kingdom over a specified future time period;

“disaster risk management” for the purposes of this Act means the systematic process of minimising disaster risk and managing the impact of a disaster;

“disaster risk management plan” means a plan, developed by an entity, which sets out goals and objectives for reducing –

(a) disaster risk; and
(b) disaster impact,

together with related actions to accomplish those objectives;

“disaster risk reduction” for the purposes of this Act means the systematic process of minimising disaster risk;
“emergency” for the purposes of this Act means a serious, unexpected and often dangerous situation requiring immediate action;

“Emergency Fund” for the purposes of this Act means the Fund established under the Emergency Fund Act (Cap 11.08) or any subsequent legislation governing the Fund;

“emergency operations” means activities undertaken before, during or after an event to address or reduce —
(a) illness, injury or loss of human life;
(b) property loss or damage; or
(c) environmental damage;

“emergency powers” refers to powers authorised under sections 16 and 17 of this Act to be exercised during a declaration of a state of emergency;

“emergency relief” means immediate survival assistance to the victims of a disaster;

“evacuation” means the act of moving people, property and assets temporarily to a safer place before, during or after an event;

“evacuation plan” means a plan, generally established in advance, to enable the movement of one or more persons or assets temporarily, to a safer place, before, during or after an event;

“event” refers to the occurrence of a hazard in the Kingdom, including the following —
(a) a cyclone, flood, drought, storm, storm surge, tornado, tsunami;
(b) earthquake or volcanic eruption;
(c) an explosion or fire, a chemical, fuel or oil spill, or a gas leak;
(d) an infestation, plague or epidemic;
(e) a failure of critical service or infrastructure;
(f) a terrorist attack against the Kingdom; or
(g) any other event similar to paragraphs (a) to (e);

“first responder” means a person or agency with specialised training required to provide initial response and assistance at the scene of an emergency;

“hazard” means a dangerous phenomenon, substance, human activity or condition that may cause widespread human, economic or environmental loss or impact;

“imminent” for the purposes of this Act means that there is a high probability that the event will occur and immediate action is necessary to reduce disaster impact;
“initial damage assessment” for the purposes of this Act means a multi-sectoral assessment carried out immediately after a disaster, to obtain an initial evaluation of the damage to the affected population;

“Inter Cluster Co-ordination Committee” means a Committee established under section 51 of this Act; “lead agency” for the purposes of this Act refers to the agency that will lead the response to a specific emergency, as prescribed in Schedule 1;

“local tsunami” for the purposes of this Act means a tsunami which is predicted to reach the Kingdom in one hour or less;

“human-induced hazard” means a hazard which is the result of human intent, negligence, or error;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for disaster risk management;

“Ministry” means the Ministry responsible for disaster risk management;

“mitigation” means the lessening or limiting of the adverse impact of a disaster;

“multi hazard early warning system” means the set of capacities needed to provide timely and meaningful information to enable a relevant stakeholder that is likely to be impacted by an imminent hazard to respond appropriately;

“National Controller” means the National Controller under section 33(1) of this Act;

“National Emergency Operations Centre” means the centre activated under section 62 of this Act;

“National Disaster Risk Management Plan” means the national plan prepared by the Office, which sets out national goals and objectives for reducing –

(a) disaster risks; and

(b) disaster impact,

together with related actions to accomplish those objectives;

“natural hazard” means a hazard which is the result of a natural process or phenomenon;

“outer islands” for the purposes of this Act means the island groups of Vava’u, Ha’apai, ‘Eua, Niuafo’ou and Niuatoputapu;

“preparedness” means knowledge and capacity developed by the Government, response and recovery organisations, communities and individuals to effectively anticipate, respond to, and recover from, the impacts of likely, imminent or current events;

“reconstruction” means the medium and long-term rebuilding and restoration of critical services, housing, facilities or livelihoods affected by a disaster;
“recovery” means the restoration and improvement of facilities, livelihoods and living conditions of disaster-affected communities, including efforts to reduce disaster risk;

“warehouse” for the purposes of this Act means a facility for the storage of –
(a) machinery, equipment and vehicles for emergency use; or
(b) relief aid and items intended for distribution to affected communities during or immediately following an emergency;

“situation report” means a report developed in accordance with section 67 of this Act;

“the Office” means the National Disaster Risk Management Office established under section 28 of this Act; and “Tonga Meteorological Service” means the Service established under the Meteorology Act (Cap.21.06).

3 Act binds the Crown
This Act binds the Crown.

4 Purpose
The purpose of this Act is to establish a coherent legal, institutional and regulatory framework for –
(a) planning and management of disaster risk reduction and preparedness activities before a disaster occurs;
(b) coordinating emergency response during a disaster; and
(c) facilitating disaster recovery work following a disaster.

5 Scope
This Act shall apply to all persons residing in the Kingdom.

6 Relationship to other Acts
(1) Unless otherwise stated, the powers established under this Act are in addition to, and do not limit the exercise of powers under any other Act.
(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where the exercise of a power under any other Act is inconsistent with the exercise of an emergency power under this Act, the emergency power in this Act shall prevail.
7 Limit on application

(1) Subject to subsection (2), this Act shall not apply to situations involving —
   (a) armed combat against an enemy;
   (b) war activities, directly or indirectly affecting the Kingdom;
   (c) nuclear events.
   (d) industrial disputes;
   (e) cyber incidents; or
   (f) internal disturbances and tensions such as riots, isolated and sporadic acts of violence and other acts of a similar nature, not being armed conflicts.

(2) Where the laws of the Kingdom do not provide for the declaration of a state of emergency in a situation listed in subsection (1)(a) to subsection (1)(f), the Prime Minister may, with the consent of Cabinet, declare a state of emergency under this Act and identify the lead agency to be at the forefront of response activities.

PART II – DECLARATION OF A STATE OF EMERGENCY

8 Declaration of a state of emergency due to a natural hazard

(1) A declaration of a state of emergency due to a natural hazard shall be made in accordance with this section.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Prime Minister, on the recommendation of the Minister, shall declare a state of emergency due to a natural hazard for the whole or a part of the Kingdom, if he is satisfied that —
   (a) an event due to a natural hazard has happened, is happening or may happen in the Kingdom; and
   (b) it is necessary for emergency powers to be exercised under this Act to prevent or minimise —
      (i) loss of human life;
      (ii) illness, injury to or disaster displacement;
      (iii) property loss or damage; or
      (iv) damage to the environment.

(3) Where an event is imminent and the urgent declaration of a state of emergency is paramount, the Minister shall declare a state of emergency on the advice of a lead agency.

(4) The advice of the lead agency to the Minister in subsection (3) —
   (a) shall be based on —
(i) potential risks to the lives and livelihoods of individuals and communities; and
(ii) potential damage to the environment and infrastructure; and
(b) shall provide clear technical advice and recommendations on the course of action to be taken, given the immediacy of impact.

(5) A declaration of a state of emergency under this section shall be made in the prescribed manner.

9 Declaration of a state of emergency due to a human induced hazard

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Prime Minister, on the joint recommendation of a lead agency and the Minister, shall declare a state of emergency due to a human induced hazard for the whole or a part of the Kingdom, if he is satisfied that —

(a) an event due to a human induced hazard has happened, is happening or may happen in the Kingdom; and
(b) it is necessary for emergency powers to be exercised to prevent or minimise —

(i) loss of human life;
(ii) illness or injury to, or disaster displacement;
(iii) property loss or damage; or
(iv) damage to the environment.

(2) Where an event is imminent and the urgent declaration of a state of emergency is paramount, the Minister shall declare a state of emergency on the advice of a lead agency.

(3) A declaration of a state of emergency under this section shall be made in the prescribed manner.

10 Declaration of a state of emergency due to public health

(1) A declaration of a state of emergency due to a health hazard shall be made in accordance with this section.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), the Prime Minister, on the joint recommendation of the Minister and Minister of Health, shall declare a state of emergency due to a health hazard for the whole or a part of the Kingdom, if he is satisfied that —

(a) an event due to a public health hazard has happened, is happening or may happen in the Kingdom; and
(b) it is necessary for emergency powers to be exercised to prevent or minimise —

(i) loss of human life; or
(ii) illness or injury to, or disaster displacement.

(3) A declaration of a state of emergency due to a public health hazard shall be made in the prescribed manner.

11 Declaration of a state of alert

(1) Where a situation does not meet the criteria for a declaration of a state of emergency under this Part but requires the general public to be on alert of an imminent event, the Minister may declare a state of alert in accordance with this section.

(2) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Director, shall declare a state of alert if he is satisfied that –
   (a) the general public, relevant agencies and governing bodies should be on alert for an imminent event; and
   (b) preparatory measures shall be taken to lessen the impact of the event

(3) A declaration of a state of alert shall be made in the prescribed manner.

12 Declaration of a small scale disaster

(1) A declaration of a small scale disaster shall be made in accordance with this section.

(2) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Director, shall declare a small scale disaster if he is satisfied that –
   (a) an event has happened or is happening in the Kingdom;
   (b) the impact or likely impact of the event –
      (i) is limited to a specific area or locality within the Kingdom but one or more lead agencies are able to respond to the event; or
      (ii) applies generally to the Kingdom but the level of impact is not to the extent that a declaration of a state of emergency is required, and circumstances still require a co-ordinated national response and provisioning.

(3) A declaration of a small scale disaster shall be made in the prescribed manner.

13 Power to act

(1) The power to declare or recommend a state of emergency, state of alert or state of small scale disaster under this Part shall extend to a person who is –
   (a) acting for; or
   (b) acting with the delegated authority of the principal holder of that power.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person is –
(a) acting for the principal holder if, at the time that the declaration or recommendation is made, he has been authorised to do so; and

(b) acting with the delegated authority of the principal holder if, at the time that the declaration or recommendation is made, the authority has been –

(i) delegated in writing by the principal holder; or

(ii) due to the urgency of the emergency, delegated verbally by the principal holder.

(3) A person who is acting for or with a delegated authority under this section is subject to, and shall act in accordance with, the requirements of the principal holder of the power under this Part.

14 Procedures to be followed after a declaration

(1) Upon a declaration under sections 8, 9, 10, 11 or 12, the National Controller shall have the power to do one or more of the following –

(a) co-ordinate the appropriate response in consultation with governing bodies under this Act;

(b) activate the National Emergency Operations Centre or direct that it is on standby mode;
