ARMS AND AMMUNITION REGULATIONS

Made by the Privy Council¹

Commencement [28th February, 1969]

1 Short title

These Regulations may be cited as the Arms and Ammunition Regulations.

2 Conditions of licences

Every licence to possess, use or carry an arm and ammunition shall be subject to the following conditions —

- (a) that the holder thereof, hereinafter referred to as the Licensee, shall not part with possession of such arm or ammunition except to a person lawfully entitled to possess the same;
- (b) that the Licensee shall not have in his possession any ammunition in excess of the quantity specified in his licence;
- (c) that the Licensee shall observe the provisions made thereunder;
- (d) that the Licensee shall obey all lawful orders of any police officer relating to such arm and ammunition and shall produce such arm and ammunition to any police officer on demand;
- (e) that such arm and ammunition shall not be used for any unlawful purpose.

3 Rifles and shotguns

Where the arm specified in a licence to possess, use and carry an arm and ammunition is a rifle or a shot gun, it shall be a condition of such licence that such rifle or shot gun shall be carried unloaded; and —

- (a) in the case of a rifle, with, if possible, the magazine and bolt removed, or otherwise with the magazine or bolt removed; or
- (b) in the case of a shot gun, either broken or in parts:

Provided that —

- (i) the provisions of this regulation shall not apply when such rifle or shot gun is being carried with the “immediate” intention of discharging the same;
- (ii) the provisions of paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of this regulation shall not apply if compliance with such paragraph is impossible.

4 Dealers and repairers

It shall be a condition of a licence to deal in and repair arms and ammunition —

- (a) that the holder of such licence (hereinafter referred to as the Licensee), or his servants employed in the ordinary course of business of such holders shall observe the provisions of the Principal Act and of any Regulations made thereunder;
- (b) that the Licensee or his servants employed as aforesaid shall not part with possession of any arm or ammunition except to a person lawfully entitled to the possession thereof;
- (c) that the Licensee or his servants employed as aforesaid shall obey all lawful orders of any police officer relating to any arm or ammunition in his or their possession;
- (d) that the Licensee shall not have in his possession any ammunition in excess of the quantity specified in his licence;
- (e) that any arm and ammunition in the possession of the Licensee shall not be used for any unlawful purpose;
- (f) that the Licensee shall ensure that proper records required under the Principal Act are maintained by him in the prescribed form.

5 Disposal of arms and ammunition

- (1) Any arm or ammunition deposited for safe keeping at any police station in accordance with the provisions of section 33(3) of the Principal Act, if not taken possession of by the lawful owner thereof within 12 months from the date of such deposit, shall be disposed of by the Minister of Police unless the Minister of Police has reason to believe that the lawful owner intends to take possession of such arm or ammunition.

- (2) Any arm or ammunition detained under sections 25 and 30 of the Principal Act which has to be disposed of under section 34 of the Principal Act, shall be disposed of as the Minister deems fit.
- (3) In either of the above cases if the arm or ammunition is sold, the proceeds of such sale, less expenses, shall be paid to the owner of the arm or ammunition:

Provided that if the whereabouts of the owner cannot be ascertained the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into general revenue.

- (4) The Minister of Police, at least one month prior to such disposal, shall advertise in at least one edition of any newspaper regularly circulating in the Kingdom his intention of disposing of such arm or ammunition, and naming the owner thereof.
- (5) Any arm or ammunition forfeited under the provisions of the Principal Act may be disposed of as directed by the Minister of Police.
- (6) Where under this regulation arms and ammunition are directed to be disposed of, they may, if a suitable purchaser is available, be sold.

6 Fees

The fees set out in the First Schedule to these Regulations are hereby prescribed for the purposes of the Principal Act and shall be paid in respect of the matters therein set out.

7 Forms

The forms set out in the Second Schedule to these Regulations are hereby prescribed for the purposes of the Principal Act.
